About J. Christopher's

In 1996, Jay McCann and Chris Brogdon hatched a new idea for a different restaurant concept: a neighborhood daytime breakfast and lunch eatery featuring traditional house-made favorites, healthy choices, and creative menu options in a comfortable, friendly atmosphere. This tall order was filled when the first J. Christopher's restaurant opened in Marietta, GA in January 1997. J. Christopher's has been expanding ever since, with 23 restaurants now in operation, satisfying millions of taste buds every day.

Currently J. Christopher's operates restaurants throughout the greater Atlanta area, Macon and Savannah, as well as in Tennessee. We continually look for locations that will expand us into new neighborhoods throughout Atlanta and the southeast.
